

Daily Devotion

Manifestations of Abundance of Rains

June 20, 2025

Rain for the Seeds You've Sown

*Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. 2 Corinthians 9:6 (NIV)

*Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows... Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Galatians 6:7–9 (NIV)

There is a divine law of sowing and reaping that governs both the natural and spiritual realms. Every act of obedience, generosity, kindness, intercession, and service is a seed—planted sometimes in joy, often in tears, and occasionally in silence and obscurity. But God never forgets a single seed.

There are seasons when it may feel like your efforts are buried, unseen, and forgotten. But in the season of abundant rains, God sends divine refreshment and acceleration upon every seed you've faithfully sown. The rain is not just for the ground—it's for what you've placed in it.

Now is not the time to quit or grow weary. The clouds are gathering. The spiritual atmosphere is shifting. Your seeds are about to break open, flourish, and yield a bountiful harvest. Keep trusting. Keep expecting. Your rain is here.

Prayer

Dear Father, thank You for every opportunity to sow into Your Kingdom—through prayer, love, service, and giving. I ask that You send the rain of Your favor and blessing upon every seed I have planted. Let nothing be lost or forgotten before You. Strengthen me to continue in faithfulness, even when the results seem delayed. In this season of abundant rains, let my harvest spring forth quickly, for Your glory. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Declaration

"I declare that the rains are falling on my seeds. My harvest will not fail. I will reap in due season, for God is faithful to reward every act of obedience."

